5. Execution Environment

Analysis was executed in the Anthropic Claude.ai Computer Use sandbox environment. This is NOT a commercial cloud provider (AWS/GCP/Azure).

Component	Details
Platform	Anthropic Claude (claude.ai) Computer Use Sandbox
OS	Ubuntu 24.04.4 LTS
Kernel	Linux runsc 4.4.0 (gVisor)
CPU	Shared vCPU
RAM	9.0 GB
Disk	9.9 GB (ephemeral)
Python	3.12.3
NumPy	2.4.2
Pandas	3.0.1
SciPy	1.17.0
scikit-learn	1.8.0
Matplotlib	3.10.8
Differentiation	Numerical + Analytical Jacobians
GPU	None (CPU only)

No GPU: PyTorch CUDA deps required ~5GB disk. All tensor computations implemented in NumPy with analytical Jacobians (mathematically equivalent).

Reproducibility: All RNGs seeded (np.random.seed(42), RandomState(123)). Fully reproducible.

6. Important Notice on Data Provenance

All data in this document is entirely fictional (synthetic), created by Claude (AI). No real-world data was used.

Specifically:

Numeric data (50 indicators x 720 rows) — Generated mathematically using NumPy random number generators (seed=42, 123). Six-dimensional latent factors were created and embedded into 50 dimensions via tanh nonlinear mapping. Column names such as revenue, GDP growth rate, and exchange rates are assigned, but the actual values are synthetic numbers entirely unrelated to real economic data.

SNS text posts — These are creative writings imagined by Claude as "what SNS posts about a fictional company called Yamato Foods might look like." Written in multiple languages (Japanese, Chinese, English, Portuguese, etc.) for each market, but none are real SNS posts.

Media article titles — Real media outlet names such as "Nikkei Shimbun," "Bloomberg," and "Reuters" are used as sources, but all article titles and content are entirely fictional. None are real articles.

Policy/regulation documents — Real agency names such as "Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare (Japan)," "FDA," and "FSSAI" are used, but all document titles and content are fictional.

Company name "Yamato Foods Corp." — This is a fictional company.

Recommended notice for Zenn publication: "All data is synthetic and is unrelated to any real-world data, articles, or companies."
